Dear Tom:

On behalf of the Superintendent of Schools, Richard Stein, and the Professional Development and Planning Committee, I would like to sincerely thank you for being our Keynote speaker at our Superintendent's Conference Day on April 11, 2008.

Your Keynote Address, "Empowering Strategies for Managing the Progression of Change and the Daily Challenges of Life," provided staff with practical strategies to assist them when dealing with the stress and adversity. Based on the Superintendent's Conference Day evaluations completed, your presentation was well received by our Gates Chili staff members. Your keen insights on how to maintain a positive perspective kept the staff engaged, laughing and enjoying their time with you. Everyone felt your message was most meaningful and will impact their respective roles within the Gates Chili School organization and their personal lives. Your uplifting spirit and sense of humor added to your presentation. Please accept my compliments on a job well done.

Thank you again for taking the time to join the District's efforts to support the Gates Chili School District on Superintendent's Conference Day.

Sincerely yours,

Dina M. Wilson
Director of Staff Development and Planning
